Email cmi@uoregon.edu to request your audition time and ask any questions about the program!

Audition requirements

Auditions last about 8 minutes and are heard by UO and CMI faculty. Please prepare the following:

Violinists and violists: a 3-octave major and minor scale of your choice. Cellists: a 2-octave major and minor scale of your choice.

2- minute solo excerpt

Be prepared to sightread chamber music excerpts.

Audition guidelines

Middle school and high school grade levels; solid music reading skills; strong teamwork ethic

Faculty strive to create ensembles that provide a good fit for their members both socially and musically; acceptance is based upon instrumentation concerns as well as audition performance.

Schedule and fees

Weekly on Fridays: one hour of coaching 4-5 p.m.

Yearly fee: $500. Financial aid available: application can be found at: uocmi.org

Chamber Players

Chamber Players is the University of Oregon Community Music Institute's chamber music program for middle and high school string players. The program provides chamber music coaching and performance opportunities to intermediate and advanced musicians. Student participants receive:

- Hour of weekly instruction: chamber music coachings and a concert every term.
- Opportunities to perform in CMI recitals and masterclasses
- The social benefits of working together in small groups toward a common goal: nurturing musical friendships, learning responsibility and dedication, and most of all, having fun!
